HOME PROGRAM UPDATE

The funding application for the new HOME Program with the target area being Borough wide is still pending approval by the Department of Community & Economic Development.

The current HOME program with the north ward of town as the target area that is from Hancock Street north needs applicants. Eligible improvements include, but are not limited to: replacing major systems such as roofing, heating, electrical, and plumbing, bringing properties up to code, addressing lead-based paint hazards, and making accessibility modifications such as grab bars and ramps for persons with disabilities.

Residents must own and reside in their home in order to apply for funding, and household income is subject to the U.S. Department of HUD FY 2016 Income Limits for Schuylkill County:

Household Size

1	$32,900
2	$37,600
3	$42,300
4	$46,950
5	$50,750
6	$54,500

If you live in the north ward and meet these financial guidelines, please stop in the municipal building or phone 570-429-0640 during normal business hours.
